MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of the Church of St. Jerome, believe in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world. Empowered by this belief, we seek through the celebration of the Mass, to be Christ's presence in the world. Having celebrated the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist in the Holy Mass, we strive to build Christian community through prayer and service. We humbly place all our efforts under the special patronage of the Blessed, ever Virgin Mary, the Mother of God and our mother in the faith.

Coffee Hour!

Please join St. Jerome's Parish Life Committee at our monthly coffee hour this Sunday, May 20th, after the 8 a.m. & 10 a.m. Masses. We hope to see you there!

Year of the Eucharist Lecture

As we conclude the Year of the Eucharist, Fr. David Tedesche will give a talk entitled "The Bread of Life." Father Tedesche will speak at St. Jerome's on Sunday, June 3rd, at 6:00 p.m. in the Church Hall. The talk will last 45 minutes. Refreshments will be provided by the Rochester Lay Dominican Group. RSVP to: Mrs. Kathleen Desrosiers, O.P. at mftop2001@yahoo.com or call Ben Anderson at 585-678-1232.

ALL Liturgical Ministers (that includes altar servers)! If you will be away during the next schedule (July to September), please contact Denise in the Parish office at 586-3231 as soon as possible and no later than May 31st. Thank you.

A
Pentecost Prayer
Written by Fr. Joseph Veneroso,
Holy Spirit of the living God,
Who hovered over the waters,
Who covered Sinai in majesty,
Who filled the Temple with glory,
Who caused the Blessed
Virgin to give birth to Jesus,
Our Lord and Who
descended on the Apostles, fill us anew with the fire of God's Love!
Hover over our chaotic world,
cover our Church in God's majesty, fill our hearts with Your glory that, like Mary and the Apostles, by witnessing to the Good News through acts of kindness and love,
we too might give flesh to God's Word today and forever.
Amen

Diocesan Mission Sunday Special Collection

This weekend, May 19th and 20th, we shall observe Diocesan Missions Sunday. Our dedicated Sisters of St. Joseph in Brazil, and the Sisters of Mercy in Chile, have been on pilgrimage sharing their gifts of faith and service to God's people. We are called to help them this weekend with our prayers and sacrificial gift, so that they may continue to bring Christ into the world where darkness, despair and emptiness prevail. Surely, we can help to bring hope to them.

East Rochester Village Memorial Day Parade

East Rochester American Legion Post 1917 Memorial Day Parade and Ceremony begins at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, May 26th, by Debbie Supply and Tim Hortons on West Commercial Street, proceeding to the Station of Heroes in Edmund Lyon Park on Main Street for the Ceremony. All Veterans and the community are welcome. For more information, contact past CMDR Richard Bird 698-0957.

Columbiettes at St. Jerome

The Columbiettes have formed at St. Jerome's. The next meeting will be on Monday, May 21, 2018, at 7:00 p.m. in the Church Hall. The Columbiettes are a charitable organization that supports many different charities. They are involved in community activities, as well as working collectively with our Brother Knights of Columbus, to promote faith and unity. Our patronesses are our Blessed Mother, St. Therese of Lisieux and St. Joan of Arc. If this interests you, please contact Christa Stewart at 585-406-3777 for more information.

Please Pray for Those in the Military:

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Pentecost (B)

Acts 2:1–11, 1 Cor 12:3b–7, 12–13 or Gal 5:16–25, Jn 20:19–23 or Jn 15:26–27; 16:12–15

The image of Mary—surrounded by the apostles in the upper room, awaiting the Holy Spirit—has a name: Regina Apostolorum, Queen of the Apostles. She is enthroned as Queen Mother because, when her Son the King was enthroned and lifted up, he told her, “Behold your son.” With those words he entrusted Mary to the care of John, the apostles, and the whole Church. As any good queen and mother, she defends her own. She is also called the Spouse of the Spirit, because it was in union with the Spirit that she engendered the Son. She also engenders him in the apostles and in our souls through her powerful intercession and waiting on the Spirit.

One of Mary’s best qualities is waiting patiently until God’s power arrives. After the annunciation she waited nine months with Jesus in her womb. Then she waited some thirty years while Jesus grew and prepared for his mission. She waited during his public life and watched as his fame spread, but also as his enemies plotted. She waited at the foot of the cross and endured that unending Holy Saturday until the resurrection. And she waited patiently on the first Pentecost Sunday for the coming of the gift of the Holy Spirit promised by her Son. She knew he would come through, as he always did.

We get impatient with God and want him to respond on our timetables according to our expectations. He waits to give us a chance to adapt our hearts to his plan and timing. He waits until the time is just right.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

Dear Padre

May 20, 2018

There are many gifts given by the Spirit, but I don’t understand “speaking in tongues.” What is the significance of this gift?

You are probably speaking from the experience of a “charismatic” prayer service, in which an individual suddenly enters into an ecstatic state and begins speaking what sounds to others like gibberish.

Sacred Scriptures offer us some examples of this phenomenon. On the day of Pentecost, for example, the apostles were overtaken by the Holy Spirit and were understood by people of many nations, each in his or her own tongue (Acts 2:3– 4, 6). The phenomenon occurred again when the first Gentiles were converted to the faith: Peter heard them “speaking in tongues and extolling God” (Acts 10:46). Paul, too, saw the ecstatic condition of the people he confirmed (Acts 19:6).

Saint Paul reminds us that speaking in tongues is one of many gifts the Spirit may bestow upon a person (1 Corinthians 12:10, 28, 30), but that, above all of them, there is love (1 Corinthians 13:8). He tells us that, like the gifts of prophecy and knowledge, so also will the gift of speaking in tongues come to an end. Love will prevail.

We must remember Paul’s words as we contemplate all the gifts of the Spirit: “So, my friends, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues; but all things should be done decently and in order” (1 Corinthians 14:39–40).
